Manifesto:

For whoever has not met me before I would describe myself as friendly and approachable, I feel like anyone would be able to come to me with any problems or queries that anyone may encounter during their stay at uni accommodation. I have previously been house captain and social representative during sixth form which I imagine has given me some transferable skills which I can act upon now.

I promise that if I was elected as president I would try and represent their views to the best of my ability.

As Spiderman once said- 'With great power comes great responsibility'
