Privacy Notice

Here at Newcastle University Students' Union we take your privacy seriously and will only use your personal information to administer your account and provide the products and services as part of our free membership as a Newcastle University student. An example of this includes communicating career opportunities, extracurricular activities, volunteering, and student advice services available to you. We never share your details with third parties unless you have asked us to do so, or it is a requirement by law, or it is necessary for us to do so in order to carry out our services. For example, if you have registered for an employability event or volunteer service, we will pass on your contact information to ensure the relevant organization is able to contact you accordingly. In some circumstances where students have volunteered as course reps, club presidents and/or society officers, details may be displayed on the NUSU website or via the University app for students to get in touch with you accordingly.

Further details on this are set out in our Privacy Policy which can be found at www.nusu.co.uk/privacy
